The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The reference (JP 2002-088257) differs from the present invention in that the present thermally conductive polymer molded article comprises 100 parts by weight a liquid crystalline polymer having a thermal conductivity and 5 to 800 parts by weight a thermally conductive filler, which the liquid crystal polymer and thermally conductive filler are oriented in the molded article by a magnetic field. See page 13 in the present specification. The reference only broadly discloses the liquid crystal polymer can be selected from polymeric material (see sections [0019]-[0020]). The reference also does not disclose the specific ranges of the present thermally conductive polymer molded article formed by liquid crystalline polymer and thermally conductive filler.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shean C. Wu whose telephone number is 571-272-1393. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Mark Huff can be reached on 571-272-1385. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
